

Boeing is partnering with SSDC Services Corporation to provide Medicare Plan guidance and enrollment services to our employees. This includes both Medicare Advantage and Supplemental Plans.

The Right Plan for You

If you're currently receiving Medicare, or will soon be eligible, it is important to know all your options. Medicare Advantage and Supplemental Plans are two great alternatives to traditional Medicare that can provide lower costs, additional services, and more flexibility.

Why SSDC?

SSDC is a trusted Boeing vendor who has enrolled more than 300,000 individuals into Medicare. SSDC has a 98% customer satisfaction rate.

Why Medicare Advantage?

Medicare Advantage caps out-of-pocket costs and often provides additional services like hearing, vision, dental, and comprehensive drug coverage.

Plan Comparison

SSDC's licensed experts will help you maximize your Medicare benefits. SSDC will provide you with a thorough plan comparison that fits your needs, and will always work in your best interest.

Other Medicare Services

To be eligible for Medicare Advantage, you must be enrolled in Medicare parts A&B - and SSDC Services will help you enroll at no cost.
